

Transformational Teacher Leaders

Teacher Leaders are a driving force for change within their classroom, school, and community, working to motivate, guide and inspire in an ever-changing environment.

This new, volunteer position within the League of Canadian Reformed School Societies (LCRSS) has been created to help build a Leadership Framework and online professional learning community for teacher leaders. Successful candidates will work on a committee together with the League Coordinator and Office of Continuing Studies from the Canadian Reformed Teacher's College to design and implement a framework and platform for professional development and leadership opportunities for teachers in the LCRSS.

Skills & Experiences Required:

- At least 5 years of successful teaching experience
- Leadership training and prior leadership experience would be an asset
- Knowledge of Microsoft Teams would be an asset, but is not required
- Knowledge of WordPress would be an asset, but is not required
- Is flexible and adaptable in their thinking and leadership style enabling them to lead in an ever-changing environment
- Is able to quickly develop relationships with a diverse team of colleagues
- Recognizes strengths and weaknesses in both themselves and others, and uses this knowledge to build a diverse team using a strengths-based approach
- Has strong conflict resolution and team building skills
- Has the ability to analyze and identify trends
- Is courageous and willing to use unconventional methods to create innovative solutions

The Successful Candidate Will:

- Lead through example to motivate and inspire change
- Inspire confidence in their team
- Maintain high academic, moral and ethical standards
- Continually evaluate and set clear, measurable and attainable goals
- Clearly portray a vision and strong sense of purpose
- Cultivate good relationships with students, staff, parents, businesses and community partners
- Value the contributions of others, involving staff in the decision making process
- Understand the unique needs of individual team members
- Support and guide the collaborative efforts of the team
- Encourage cooperation and open communication

Interested candidates should contact the League Coordinator and send a copy of the resume and portfolio to coordinator@lcrss.org before July 28, 2019.
